PLAYED "HEARTS"

The quartet who were arrested in the Brunswick billiard parlors Tuesday night appeared before Judge Lindsay vesterday. They were W. C. Achl, C. F. England, H. Kubey and Wm. Mc-Kinley and they were all up for gambling. Officer Renear testified to having watched the game for nearly an hour and said he saw two nickels placed upon the table each of which was redeemed with a white chip. He sald that Kubey seemed to be banker and Achi seemed to be the winner. Senator Achi conducted the defens and made a desperate effort to prove that the defendants were playing new variety of "Hearts" in which each player put as many chips on the table as he had hearts in his hand. Bagley and two of the soldiers ran off and another man carried the wounded man into a Japanese restaurant. The patrol wagon was called and the injured man was taken to the Queen's hospital. It is not thought that the wounds will prove se-

RARE STAMPS FROM HAWAII

The New York Sun, in the course of an article on postage stamp collections,

"The Hawaiian stamps are held next to the Mauritius in point of rarity. All are very scarce, but the two-cent stamp of 1851 is the most valuable, a speqimen having brought $3,500 at a recent

"These first issues were known as missionary stamps. They were discovered by accident.

"A stamp collector visiting the Hawaijan Islands heard that a missionary had one of his rooms papered with stamps. Upon examining the walls of this room a number of the highly prized varieties were found whose existence had not previously been suspected. The visitor succeeded in removing half a dozen of the stamps in fairly good condition, and they are now the only ones of this issue known.

"The other Hawaiian issues are said to owe their scarcity to the fact that nearly the whole supply was destroyed by the burning of the Honolulu postrarity is that a stamp dealer went to is open from 5 a. m. to 11 p. m. except Honolulu some years ago and bought up every stamp he could get, thus cornering the supply and holding them at

"After the Hawaiian stamps come those of British Guiana. These are even scarcer than the famous Mauritius, but bring a much smaller price. Here again is illustrated a peculiar phase of his fascinating hobby.

THEY WANT OUR ISLAND PICTURES

The Hawaii Promotion Committee is n receipt of a communication from the International Photographic Exchange in which the request is made that the committee make an effort to get amateur photographers in the islands to become connected with the exchange. The purpose is to make up albums of views in all parts of the country, wherever members may be located, and send these from city to city to members. more members to make up albums to send on to Washington. Acting Governor Atkinson, who is something of an amateur photographer, and who took a number of excellent pictures on the first round-the-island tour of Governor Carter, will begin the preparation of the first volume.

Had a Scrap.

Ben Guerrea, T. L. Dale and Tom Nott were in a big scrap in a Fort street saloon yesterday afternoon and were taken to the police station on a charge of affray. Nott proved that he was only trying to separate the others and was discharged. The others are out on $15 bail. Lunggren and A. Morwere arrested in the morning for a similar offence. Hattie Kanehaku was arrested for assault. Several drunks
